Oral Arguments in the Michigan Supreme Court
Video Resource & Discussion Guide

Description

The Michigan Supreme Court Learning Center, a unit of the Michigan Judicial Institute, has created a video resource and companion discussion guide that examines the role of oral arguments in the appellate process of the Michigan Supreme Court. The resource uses Wayne County v Hathcock 471 Mich 445 (2004) as a case study. The video resource may be borrowed from the Learning Center and is available in DVD or VHS format; the discussion guide may be downloaded from the Learning Center's web site, <http://courts.mi.gov/plc/>.

Lending Policy

The number of copies of the video resource is limited. Materials are loaned for a period of up to 30 days. An additional extension of 7 days will be granted if no other request is pending, and the Learning Center has been contacted prior to the original due date. A replacement fee of $30 is charged for non-returned, damaged, or lost items. If the items are returned in good condition, charges are waived.

Shipping Policy

The Michigan Supreme Court Learning Center incurs the cost of shipping materials to you. You are responsible for the cost of returning the materials to the Learning Center via UPS or another trackable source. A notification of the date for return will be included with your materials. The Learning Center appreciates the timely return of your materials.
